Wilmington Trust Clarifies Role in Natural Products Group, LLC Bankruptcy Case

No credit exposure involved in administrative role

Wilmington, DE, February 1, 2010 – Wilmington Trust, a leading provider of institutional trustee, agency, and administrative services through its Corporate Client Services (CCS) business, said today that it is not a creditor to Natural Products Group, LLC (Natural Products), which filed for Chapter 11 protection on January 27, 2010 in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware.

Recent news reports may have led readers to believe that Wilmington Trust is providing credit to Natural Products. In fact, Wilmington Trust is not a lender to Natural Products, despite the bankruptcy filing's listing of Wilmington Trust among Natural Products' largest unsecured creditors. Wilmington Trust is serving as agent for holders of approximately $215 million of debt issued by Natural Products.

Wilmington Trust has no credit exposure, unsecured or otherwise, to Natural Products or any of its subsidiaries. Through its CCS business, Wilmington Trust is paid a fee for providing these services. The bankruptcy filing of Natural Products has no effect on Wilmington Trust's balance sheet, credit quality, or financial condition.

Wilmington Trust's CCS business offers institutional trustee, agency, asset management, retirement plan, and administrative services for clients worldwide who use capital market financing structures, as well as those who seek to establish or maintain nexus, or legal residency, for special purpose entities. Because Wilmington Trust does not underwrite securities offerings or provide investment banking services, it is able to deliver corporate trust services that are conflict-free.
