Wilmington Trust Chief Investment Officer Receives Editorial Award

Wilmington, DE, May 19, 2010 – Wilmington Trust announced that Chief Investment Officer Rex P. Macey, CFA®, CIMA®, CFP®, received the 2010 Stephen L. Kessler Writing Award yesterday from Investment Management Consultants Association (IMCA®) during the organization’s annual conference in Orlando, Florida.

IMCA presents the award for excellent editorial contributions made the previous year to its bimonthly publication, Investments & Wealth Monitor. Mr. Macey was recognized for his article, “Of Tulips and Trumpets: Is Time Diversification a Myth or Reality? Does Time Horizon Affect the Tolerance for Risk?,” which was published in the January/February 2009 issue of the magazine. (Click here to read the article.) He previously won the award, which is named for the first editor of the IMCA Monitor, in 1995.

Mr. Macey directs Wilmington Trust’s strategic and tactical asset allocation research and serves as a portfolio manager. He chairs the company’s Investment Research Team and is a senior member of its Investment Strategy Team. Earlier in his career, Mr. Macey developed software that projects future wealth by using Monte Carlo simulation to model investment and mortality risk. He also co-founded Mobius Group, a leading provider of information on money managers. Mr. Macey holds an MBA from the Kenan-Flagler Business School at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill and a bachelor’s degree from Vanderbilt University. He is an instructor for a CFA review course sponsored by the Atlanta Chapter of the CFA Institute.
